Dear Parents,

In response to the sudden school closings across the city, the teaching staff at YDH has been working very diligently to prepare educational packages and material as well as a means of electronic communication during the time of our absence from school. Packages will be ready to be picked up on Thursday between 10:00 and 12:00. We anticipate that a means of videoconferencing will be available to be accessed beginning next week Monday, March 23rd. Details about times of conferences will follow. We understand that this is an unusual set of circumstances and just as we have partnered throughout the year up until now, we look towards your partnership to be able to accomplish this great feat. Thank you in advance for your cooperation and participation. It is vital for your child's educational growth and development at this time.

Sincerely,

Malka Schmulowitz
