Dvar Torah—Baha'alotcha

ואתנה את הלויים נתונים לאהרון ולבניו מתוך בני ישראל (ח: י"ט)

Rashi on this Pasuk notes that the words "Bnei Yisroel" are repeated five times and says that the Torah does this to show Hashem's love for the Jewish people and that they are compared to the Five Books of the Torah. The Gur Aryeh asks why Hashem chose to give this message in this particular section of the Torah. He answers that the Leviim are warned to be careful in their position as guardians of the Mishkan and to take extra precautions not to let anyone trespass into the Holy of Holies, for it is punishable by death. Hashem equates this loss of a precious Jewish life to that of the burning of the Five Books of the Torah.

It is, however, hard to imagine that the diligent, pious and zealous Leviim would be anything less than vigilant in their guarding duties. They were standing near the holiest site on earth. Could they possibly need more motivation to understand the value of a Jewish life so that they execute their duties more carefully?

The answer is that the wellsprings of human motivation are of endless depth. Even the most highly charged idealist can be inspired to reach higher and to do yet more if he recognizes in a newer and even more profound way the responsibility incumbent upon him. The Leviim would have done a meticulous job without Hashem's warning. However, Hashem knew they could reach a higher level of motivation and consequently a greater performance with a deeper appreciation of the sacredness of a Jewish life.

In our interactions with our fellow Jews, we surely try to do our best, under the circumstances, to treat each other with the love, warmth and concern he/she deserves. But, from the Gur Aryeh, we see that if we were to view each Jew as Hashem does, as a living, walking Sefer Torah, we can heighten our sensitivities for each other. To do this, Rashi says we must appreciate the tremendous potential that is within every one of us waiting to be unlocked. Before you speak to another Jew, say to yourself, "Would I speak this way to a Sefer Torah?", "Would I act this way in front of a Torah Scroll?"

More significantly, we must also view ourselves in this way. Our potential is endless. In the light of our capacity for greatness, it is clear that we can discover new holiness and reach deep down to unleash our potential by thriving on Mitzvot Bein Adam L' Chavairo - by appreciating who we are and who our fellow Jews are.

In the upcoming school year, the Yeshiva will be embarking on a year-long program focusing on Mitzvot Ben Adam L'Chaveiro, sensitizing the children to proper social interactions and treating one another with Derech Eretz. This program will help build self esteem in each student and emphasize the need to appreciate one another. With your help, the success of this program can put us well on our way to greeting Moshiach.

Congratulations!

YDH PARNES HAYOM PROGRAM

Dear Parents,

The central theme of Yeshiva Derech HaTorah is the study of Torah. Each day that the Yeshiva is in session, our talmidim are engrossed in the study of Torah, each at their own level, from Pre-School through 12th Grade.

Yeshiva Derech HaTorah invites you to become an active participant in our daily Torah study by sponsoring a day, week, month or full year of learning. Sponsorships can be made in honor of an anniversary or birthday, for a refuah shleimah for someone in need, or to commemorate the Yahrtzeit of a loved one. The names for whom the day's learning is being sponsored will be posted in each classroom.

You can sponsor:

- A day of learning for $72
- A week of learning for $360
- A month of learning for $720
- A year of learning for $5000

For further information, please contact Joel Weisblum in the Financial Office. Your support will help to strengthen the study of Torah at Yeshiva Derech HaTorah.

Please tear off and send in to the Yeshiva Office.
